I Wish to Thank

The good people of Paris for their most liberal patronage which they have accorded me in the past. My business has exceeded expectations.

Now as the holidays are approaching, I want to call your attention to the fine line of Candies which I will in a few days place in my windows. I handle the best that comes to this market, such as Lowneys, Gunthers, Doggets and others. Mann's Parisian Chocolates that is packed for me is very fine. Home-made Candy a specialty. With a full assortment of Fruit, Nuts, &c., I cordially invite Soda Water the year around. Hot Drinks in season.

Yours for business,

C. P. MANN.

Bourbon Circuit Court.

Tuesday in the Bourbon Circuit Court was taken up with the trial of the case of Rebecca Rudisill vs. W. A. Bacon. The plaintiff sued for $253.30, with damages of $50. Mrs. Rudisill was represented by Hon. C. M. Thomas and C. J. Barns, and Mr. Bacon by Judge Denis Dundon and Judge Hartman Stitt. The case was concluded Wednesday by the jury finding for plaintiff in the sum of $67.75. The next case called was the damage suit of Mrs. Lillie B. Burberry against Mrs. Nancy N. Shropshire. The plaintiff asking for $10,000 damages for alleged slander. Judge Denis Dundon is representing plaintiff and Maurey Kemper, of Lexington, the defendant.

The jury found for the plaintiff, Mrs. Burberry, in the sum of $200. The plaintiff is the wife of George R. Burberry, who is chief prosecuting witness against the defendant who is under three indictments, for sending a threatening letter, drawing a weapon and pointing a weapon, while Mrs. Shropshire has a suit pending for alleged damages against Mr. Burberry.

The two families are neighbors and had feeling between them has existed for some time. Mr. Burberry is the agent for the Frankfort and Cincinnati railroad at Centerville, while Mrs. Shropshire and her husband, A. P. Shropshire, conduct a general store opposite that of Mr. Burberry.

The case of Nancy Shropshire vs. Geo. R. Burberry was then called and entered into. Mrs. Shropshire asks for $10,000 damages against Mr. Burberry for assaulting her. All of the regular jurors were discharged and the sheriff ordered to summon this jury as he found them on the street, which was done and the case is now being tried. It looks like all of these cases in connection with this trouble between these neighbors will be disposed of at this term of court.

The grand jury adjourned Wednesday afternoon until Wednesday next. Most of the members are farmers and wanted to take advantage of the cold snap to kill hogs, was the cause of adjourning. It is understood the jury has been quite busy, but up to this time no report has been made.

The Holiday Trade.

Early shopping is being urged and is being taken advantage of everywhere this year and our readers should take advantage of early shopping if you want the best to select from. Late shopping for holiday goods is a great mistake made by many. Why wait until goods are picked over time and again and probably become soiled before you go to select what you want?

The stores are already putting on a holiday appearance; goods are being unpacked daily and stocks have the holiday cheer. The Paris merchants this season have purchased more largely of holiday goods than usual and right here in Paris you can find assortments as large, things as beautiful and artistic and prices as low or lower than many big city stores. You will find from now on the holiday announcements of our progressive business men in the advertising columns of the Bourbon News, and a study of each issue will tell you where and what to buy. Start early on your shopping tours and you will be sure not to regret taking our advice.
